

A BELLE AT HOT SPRINGS, VA.

Continued from Page One.

November 12, at 2 o'clock, at 144 Twenty-ninth street, Rev. Dr. Louis Stern officiating.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Meeta Graham, daughter of Mr. Graham, and Carroll Storrs Alden, instructor at Annapolis, October 21 at high noon at St. Andrew's Church, Hopkinton, N. H., and the wedding was followed by a breakfast at "The Shelter," the home of Gen. and Mrs. Graham.

Cards have been received in Washington announcing the engagement of Miss Edith Nattans, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Nattans, and Mr. Morton Hecht, both of Baltimore.

The marriage of Miss Alice Scott, daughter of Mr. Owen Scott, of this city, to Mr. Charles Bridgen Lansing, of Colorado Springs, Colo., will take place on Wednesday afternoon, November 22, at 4 o'clock, in St. Stephen's Church, Colorado Springs, where Mr. Scott and his daughters have spent the autumn and expect to spend the winter. Mr. Scott's other daughter, Miss Mary Scott, was married in the same church, to Mr. William Irving Howbert, on October 15. The engagements of the two daughters were announced at the same time a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Annie Barr Israel announces the engagement of her daughter Dorothy to Mr. Walter Thomas Cahill, of Meriden, Conn. The marriage will take place late in November.

Joseph Winston Timberlake, a prominent lawyer of Gastonia, N. C., and Miss Lillian Earle Christmas, of Charlottesville, Va., were married at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian Church, by Rev. Donald C. MacLeod, pastor. The young couple will remain in Washington visiting friends for about a week, and on the way to Gastonia, where they will make their future home, will stop at Strasburg, Va., to visit the parents of the bridegroom. Mr. Timberlake is a brother of Mrs. A. J. Calahan, of 318 A street southeast. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia, and is a member of the law firm of Jones & Timberlake, of Gastonia.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Miss Helen Taft was the guest of honor at a tea party at the Casino at the Virginia Hot Springs Friday afternoon, upon her return from a long horseback ride through the mountains. Among the other guests were her aunt, Mrs. Thomas K. McLaughlin, Mrs. Frederick Edley, and Miss Mary Tolson.

A tea and candy bazaar for the benefit of the Soldiers, Sailors, and Marines' Club at the clubhouse, 37 C street northwest, is being arranged by the women of the Army and Navy League to take place Wednesday afternoon, December 6, from 2 to 4 o'clock. Mrs. Aulick Palmer is chairman of the committee, which includes Mrs. Audenried, Mrs. R. B. Bradford, Mrs. Lymnae Tiffany, Mrs. Alfred B. Taylor, Mrs. John C. Kelton, Mrs. B. H. Buckingham, Mrs. P. M. Rieky, Mrs. Richard T. Mulligan, Mrs. George F. Elton, Mrs. Schier, Mrs. C. D. Edwards, Miss Freeman, and Miss Helen Palmer.

Miss Gertrude MacRae was hostess at a delightful Halloween fancy dress masque ball Tuesday evening, at her home, 27 U street, when she entertained the members of the society club and a few additional guests. During the evening a number of piano and vocal solos were rendered, and later supper was served and dancing continued until a late hour. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward MacRae, Mr. and Mrs. William O'Brien, Mrs. Frank A. Leonard, of Boulder, Colo., the Misses Adams, Beck, MacRae, Hunter, Hogeland, MacDonald, Spindler, Cornell, and Messrs. Edward MacRae, Jr., Leighton, O'Brien, Connors, Williams, Roden, and Kettler.

The October meeting of the Lucy Holcomb Chapter, D. A. R., was held at the home of Mrs. John Paul Earnest, with the regent, Mrs. Edwin A. Leili, in the chair.

It was the first meeting of the season, committees were appointed and plans proposed and adopted for the winter work. This chapter is especially interested in Southern educational work, and have as their protégé a little girl, Laura Mordy, in the Valle Crucis School, in one of the Carolinas.

The Misses Dyer had one of the prettiest of the many Halloween dances last Friday evening, in their new home in Lamont street. There were twenty couples, chosen from among the younger set. The suite of parlors, reception hall, and dining-room were equipped with their furniture, making it ideal for a small dance. The basement was charmingly festooned and decorated with illuminated pumpkins, lanterns, owls, branches of autumn leaves, in gay colors, making a truly rustic scene, with a thrillingly arranged switch in one corner. Supper was served in these significant and artistic surroundings.

MISS HARRIET ANDERSON.

Niece of Mrs. Taft, now visiting Miss Taft, and will return to the White House with her.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Donn, of 1214 E street northeast, assisted by Mrs. Florence Evans, entertained a few of their friends Monday evening, celebrating their anniversary. The home was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of American Beauty roses, chrysanthemums, and ferns. A delightful evening was spent in the enjoyment of musical selections, dancing, and other amusements. Supper was served later at a daintily arranged table.

Among the guests were Miss A. L. O'Donnell, the Misses A. and E. Thorn, Mrs. L. J. Hadden, Miss Mary Moran, the Misses Pearl and Ruth Henry, Miss Martha Jones, Miss Beattie Whittenkindt, the Misses Mary and Warren Greedy, Miss Grace Kane, Miss Lockwood, Miss P. Crown, Miss Ethel Edwards, Miss Gladys Corridon, and Miss Kate Barry.

The Imps will hold their next ball on Thursday evening, November 9, at National Rifles Armory. Prof. John B. Bovolenta's Orchestra will furnish the music.

Mrs. Charles Willis Fisher, wife of Naval Constructor Fisher, U. S. N., will visit her mother, Mrs. Martha S. Gleason, at the Farragut this week. Mrs. Fisher will assist at the Bazaar of Mountain Crafts, to be held at the Southern Building, Tuesday, November 7, 3 to 10 p. m., by the Southern Industrial Educational Association.

Mrs. Edward L. Lauterbach, of New York, who is the guest of Mrs. Anzi L. Barber, entertained at a box party at the Belasco Theater last evening in honor of Mrs. Barber. They had supper afterward at the New Willard.

Four rooms facing the Shoreham on the third floor of the new Southern Building will be gorgeously decorated with autumn leaves and flowers on November 3, from 2 to 5 p. m., when the Southern Industrial Educational Association is to hold its annual bazaar of mountain crafts and cabin industries on that date.

The tea room, where delicious sandwiches will be served, flowers and cake will be in evidence. It will be presided over by Mrs. L. J. Robinson, who will be assisted by Mrs. Henry Venn, Mrs. Harburt, Miss Mary Ambler, Mrs. Hoes and other society dames.

The ice cream and flower room, where cake and candy will be sold will be presided over and in charge of Miss Margaret Parker, who will be assisted by Mrs. Martha Gleason and Mrs. David White will preside over the two rooms containing the weavings, basketry, hand carvings, &c., assisted by a number of ladies. The Junior branch of the association, consisting of about twenty-five young society girls, will assist in serving cream and tea, and Miss Anne Parker will sell flowers. There will be music by an up-to-date Victrola furnished by Droop & Co.

At her home in the Montgomery apartments, Miss Christine Graham, entertained at a Halloween party twenty-four friends. The drawing-room was profusely decorated with evergreen, pumpkins, and symbolic decorations in honor of the occasion. Numerous games in keeping with the day, were indulged in by the throng present. At 12 o'clock an elaborate spread was enjoyed by the guests, and after participation in the same, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. The part of "ghost" was admirably taken by Mr. Buchanan, in a little monologue, entitled, "H. P. Ghost." He was also assisted by Mr. Ralph Miller, in the operation of the "Mystic Circle." Among those present were the hostess, Miss Christine Graham, Misses L. J. Hadden, Miss Marie Gordon, Miss Dorothy Koeth, Mr. K. Nicholson, Jr., Mr. Frank Schmidt, Mr. Roswell Boothby, Mr. Garland Smith, and Mr. H. Gordon.

The Society Ambasciatrice Maria will hold its eighth annual ball to-morrow at National Rifles Armory. Prof. Bovolenta's Orchestra will play.

CHEVY CHASE.

Andrew J. Cummings, of East Chevy Chase, who has received for the third time the nomination to represent Montgomery County in the Maryland legislature, entertained a party of friends from the city and a number of friends from the Chevy Chase Club on a fox hunt at his farm yesterday.

On Sunday afternoon, November 12, at 4 o'clock there will be a special dedication service at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Chevy Chase, in memory of Col. Joseph Belt, and the bronze tablet in front of the church will be unveiled. The Right Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington; Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, Rev. Frederick B. Howden, and Canon J. W. Austin will participate in the service, besides the members of the Episcopal Colonial War, of which organization Col. Belt was a member. Dr. Marcus Benjamin and Mr. Thomas Hyde are the officers who will represent the colonial wars.

Mrs. J. Fairfield Carpenter entertained at luncheon and bridge at the Chevy Chase Club the past week in honor of Mrs. George Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. George Langdon Whitford and daughter, Harriet, of New York, who spent the week-end in Baltimore, Md., as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. Street, have returned to their home.

Mrs. Edward L. White entertained at dinner at the Chevy Chase Club the past week, when she had among her friends Mrs. Robert E. Aiken, of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. William Lord Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bennett Poe, Miss Murray, Miss Carolyn Murray, Miss Marguerite Barbour, and Mr. James Lowe Harrison, Mr. Oliver Harrison, Mr. Ford Thompson, Dr. William Sowers, and Lieut. E. Conger Pratt.

A wedding of much interest will be that of Miss Verda Jones, daughter of Mr. Horace S. Jones, and Mr. Clyde D. Garrett, which will take place on November 14, at All Saints' Episcopal Church. The wedding party will consist of Mrs. Henry Meyers, a sister and recent bride, as matron of honor, and Miss Mary Ford, and another sister, Miss Lucille Jones, as bridesmaid. The best man and ushers will be Mr. Henry Meyers, Mr. Chester Caywood, Mr. John Meyers, Mr. Charles McCubbin, and Mr. Dunbar Dodson.

There will be a concert and dance at the Chevy Chase Library on November 12, for the benefit of the Chevy Chase Catholic Church of the Blessed Sacrament. Miss Cecilia and Miss Agnes Cummings have charge of same.

Miss Elizabeth Desses, of Jenifer street, entertained the members of the choir of All Saints' Episcopal Church at her home the past week. There were several musical numbers by different members of the choir and a violin solo by Mr. Charles L. Fralley. Among those present were Canon and Mrs. J. W. Austin, Miss Austin, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Weaver, Miss Harriet Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Fralley, Mr. William Taylor, Miss Taylor, Miss Blanche Polk-Inhorn, Mr. Howard Hill, Miss Mary Dalton, Mrs. Clarence E. Dawson, Mrs. H. Walnwright, Dr. William E. Hamilton, and Miss Mary McCubbin.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Southgate and family, who leased the Oliphant house, in Grafton street for the summer and fall, and who have been spending some time at Eaglesmere, Pa., have returned to their home for the winter.

Mrs. John L. Beale, of Delaware street, has returned to her home from Williamsburg and Richmond, Va., where she had gone to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of which she is vice president.

Mrs. J. M. MacGill and Mr. Ruel MacGill have returned to their apartment at the Chevy Chase from Valparaiso, Ind., where they were called away on account of the death of Mr. J. M. MacGill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Meyers have returned to their apartment in the Kelwood from their honeymoon trip, which was spent at Delaware Water Gap and New York City.

Miss May Ford entertained at luncheon and a linen shower the past week at her home in honor of Miss Verda Jones, whose marriage to Mr. Clyde D. Garrett will occur shortly. Among those present were Mrs. Horace S. Jones, Miss Lucille Jones, Miss Mary McCubbin, Miss Elsie McCubbin, Miss Lydia Norris, Miss Edith Jacobs, Miss Francis Franklin, Mrs. Chester Caywood, Mrs. Harry Benton, Mrs. M. McClure, Miss Beulah Hill, and Mrs. J. M. Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lathrop, of McKinley street, have returned to their home, after a trip abroad and three months touring through Alaska. On their return home they stopped at Portland and Denver. Mr. Lathrop, who is a correspondent for several magazines, went to the representative of the Newark Evening News.

The fall meeting of the Round Table will be on the second Monday in November, and will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Meigs in West Lenox street. The subject for the meeting will be the travels of the members during the past summer.

The Chevy Chase branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, met the last week at the home of the president, Mrs. W. K. Butler, of Quincy street, with a full attendance.

The next meeting of the Chevy Chase branch of the Crittenton Circle will be held on November 14, at the home of Mrs. Edward M. Mix in her apartment in the Chevy Chase.

There was an extremely interesting meeting of the Home and Foreign Missionary Society at the Chevy Chase Presbyterian Church last week. The foreign topic was "Persia," and the domestic charge d'affaires, Mr. All Kull Kahn, was the speaker. The home topic was "The work of the Young Women's Christian Association in the United States," which was very ably presented by Miss Florence Brown. A full attendance was present, after the addresses, which were instructive, as well as interesting, refreshments were served.

Little Miss Majorie Van Dyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Van Dyne, of West Kirke street, was hostess at her birthday and Halloween party at her home the past week. Among some of her young friends who were present were the Misses Julia Carter, Roberta and Agnes Ridgway, Anna De Lacy, Veda Old, Eleanor Garner, Mildred Shoemaker, Dorris Ketter, Katherine Shepherd, and the Messrs. Hoover, Helen Hodges, Anna Macfarlane, and Miriam Richards. Messrs. Eugene Stevens, Fred Carter, Frank and Charles Sawyer, Thomas Robertson, Clarence Dawson, William De Lacy, Bartlett Richards, Navins Gardner, Fred and Charles Towers, Irvin Claude, and Howard Coombs.

Mrs. Mary Fuller was the week-end hostess at the home of Mrs. Charles Carter, of West Lenox street.

The Rectory's Aid Society of All Saints' Episcopal Church, will hold its regular meeting to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the choir room of the church.

There will be an organ recital to-night at 8 o'clock at the Episcopal Church at the regular organist, Mr. William Taylor and a violin solo by Mr. Charles L. Fralley from 7:30 to 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Harry Bingham, of Patterson street, assisted by the ladies of the Altar Chapter, entertained at a silver tea at her home yesterday for the benefit of the Altar Chapter, which was largely attended and quite a financial success, there being a silver offering at the door.

The next meeting of the Chevy Chase Music Club will be on November 15, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Mellett, and Mrs. Berkeley Davis will be hostess.

The Chevy Chase Citizens' Association will hold its regular monthly meeting to-morrow evening at the Chevy Chase library.

Little Miss Roberta Ridgway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ridgway, of East Melrose street, whose birthday is to be celebrated on Sunday, November 12, is being given a party and dance, after which refreshments were served. Among her young friends who were present were Messrs. Bartlett Richards, Leo Foote, Katherine Van Dyne, Beatrice Clephane, Eleanor Garner, Anna De Lacy, Mildred Shoemaker, Dorris Ketter, Rosemary Hoover, Veda Old, and Charles Towers, Charles Weaver, Fred Carter, Eugene Stevens, Wilson Durant, Cecil Claude, Bartlett Richards, Thomas Robertson, and Clarence Dawson.

Mrs. B. Ashby Leavell, of East Bradley lane, is visiting her daughter, Miss Mildred Leavell and her brother, Campbell, on a week-end visit to Annapolis, Md., where they witnessed the football game and attended the hop at the Academy.

Miss Susie Liang spent the week-end as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Mellett, of Newlands street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Spelman, of Kent, Ohio, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Mellett, of Newlands street, have returned to their home.

Little Lola Foote spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Anna Macfarlane, of West Bradley lane and Connecticut avenue.

Mrs. T. A. Bower, of Milwaukee, Wis., who has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Booth, of East Bradley lane, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tyndall, of Hesketh street, celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their wedding at their home the past week. They had among their guests, Miss Margaret Law, Miss Mary Love, Miss Mary Ledgerwood, Miss Josephine Dally, Miss Lippincott, and Miss Anna B. Bower, of whose friends they called during the evening to extend their congratulations.

GEORGETOWN.

Mrs. J. Eakin Gadsby gave the first of a series of winter bridge parties last Friday. Her guest of honor was Mrs. E. V. Outlaw, of Baltimore, who is paying Mrs. Gadsby a visit.

Mrs. Jeffras has returned to Georgetown for the winter, and will make her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Ballentine, of Dent place.

with fortune-telling and other amusements. The decorations were yellow chrysanthemums, autumn leaves, and pumpkins. Refreshments were served on small tables adorned with jack-o'-lanterns and black cats.

Miss Florence Friday entertained on Saturday evening. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jones, of Canada; Miss Netta Craig, Mr. Henry Anderson, and Mr. Van Nastram.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman and family have given up their home in Georgetown and are now living in Clarendon, Va.

Miss Parker arrived last week to spend the winter with her cousins, the Misses Traylor, of Q street.

Mr. Arthur Clyde Leonard has returned to Georgetown, where he will spend the winter.

Miss Anna Houser returned to her O street home from a visit to Atlantic City, N. J.

Mrs. Waldo C. Hibbs has returned to her apartment in the Kanawha from a visit to her brother, in Cumberland, Md. Dr. Simpson, of Indiana, addressed the Woman's Missionary Society of Peck Memorial Chapel on Thursday afternoon.

The Peck Memorial Chapel has organized a gymnasium for the winter. The classes for ladies are held Monday evenings, and for children Monday afternoons.

Mrs. Benjamin White, formerly of Georgetown, living at the Portsmouth, will give a tea Wednesday afternoon to meet her daughter, Mrs. Sarville, who has just returned to this country.

The residents of Georgetown will be glad to learn of the opening of the Gentlewoman's League at the home of Mrs. Robert B. Tenney, 208 Q street, on November 22, and on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Mrs. Irene Brewer has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Breslin, in Roanoke, Va.

Miss Clara Marie Lipscomb, who has spent the summer in Newport, R. I., and New York, returned Wednesday evening to her home, in N street.

Miss Beale Hoover, of P street, has as her guest Mrs. H. O. Godwin, of Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Relch, of Thirtieth street, has visited her sister, Mrs. Andrew M. Du Forest Heald and Rev. Eugene Heald, who have just returned from Europe.

Miss Herr, of New Jersey, is the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. William Leitch, of R street. Miss Herr will be one of Miss Margaret Eastday's bridesmaids.

Mr. J. E. Ballinger, well known in Georgetown, left last night to join Mr. Lloyd Smoot on the staff of engineers in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond M. Talcott, formerly of 218 Q street, have purchased and will occupy the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smoot, 235 R street.

Miss Elodie Orme, who is at the Sweet Briar School, will be home for the week-end. She will be the guest of her father, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Waters, Miss Nettie Craig, and the Misses Alderman.

Mrs. S. S. Lutz, of Leesburg, Va., has been the guest during the week of her sister, Mrs. Charles Clagett, at the Kanawha.

Mrs. William King and Miss King, of N street, went to New York last week to witness the naval parade.

Miss Mamie Pierce, of P street, is visiting Mrs. Ray, in Rockville, Md.

Mrs. George A. King and Miss Maria Edmonstone King went to New York during the week to witness the naval parade.

Mr. Ray Webb, of Philadelphia, is the week-end guest of his cousin, Mr. Leonard Webb, of O street.

Mr. Brown, Wood, who with her two little sons, has been visiting in Georgetown, left last week to join Mr. Wood in Wilmington, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Bowie is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, of Thirtieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bowie spent the week-end with Mrs. Bowie's mother, Mrs. Forest Dodge.

ALEXANDRIA.

Mrs. Clarence Howard, of Fredericksburg, is visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gibson, in Rosmont.

Miss Catherine Carter Critcher, of Washington, spent the last week-end as the guest of Miss Elizabeth Janney.

Miss Margaret Ashby returned last week from Charlottesville, where she had been visiting Mrs. Oscar Carter.

Mrs. Lorenzo Lewis, and her son, Mr. O. W. Lewis, left last week for Washington, where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gordon Brent returned last Monday from a week-end visit to Norfolk.

Mrs. Joel B. Barnett, of Baltimore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert W. Payne, in Rosmont.

Miss Lisa Deane Anderson returned on Saturday from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John M. Taylor, in Richmond.

Miss Alice Colquhoun, who spent the summer and early fall in Catonsville, Md., is now the guest of the Misses Marye.

Mr. and Mrs. James Potterfield Steiner left last week for Washington, where they will make their future home.

Miss Florence Holohan, and Miss Dorothy Maybury, who have been visiting Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, have returned to their homes in Lancaster, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Kite have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Kite, to

ROTH LADIES' TAILOR AND IMPORTER

Announcement Extraordinary!

For the next two weeks I will make three special offerings:

$75	Suits	$60
	to Order
$60	Suits	$45
	to Order
$55	Suits	$40
	to Order

I will give you your choice of the most fashionable and beautiful material ever shown in Washington. Perfect fit and satisfaction guaranteed.

ROTH, 1224 14th Street N. W.
'Phone N. 1224.

Mr. James Newton Wilhoit, on Saturday, November 11, at 3 p. m., at Epiphany Church, Somerset, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander M. Kippel, of Washington, entertained at euchre, at their home, on November 3, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bryant, left Hatchett. Mrs. Hatchett was Miss Nan Lippett, and has often visited her sister, Mrs. C. W. Wattles, of this city.

Mr. J. Mathews left on Wednesday for Texas, to spend a month with his brother.

Miss Annie Turner, of "Kinloch," The Plains, Fauquier County, was the guest during the week of the Misses Marye.

The members of the Collingwood Club gave a Halloween dance at their clubhouse on the Potomac on Tuesday night, which was largely attended, and proved a most enjoyable affair to its members and guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Fowler entertained on Tuesday night in honor of Mr. Fowler's niece, who is their guest. The guests were the members of St. Paul's choir, and a number of friends from Washington and Baltimore.

Mrs. Thomas J. Kirkpatrick and children, who have been visiting Mrs. Kirkpatrick's father, Mr. Herbert Bryant, left Wednesday to join Maj. Kirkpatrick, at Fort Adams, R. I.

Miss Virginia Eustler, of Summit Point, Va., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Field.

Miss Ruth Butler, of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting the Misses Crupper.

Miss Harriet Spofford, who has been visiting Mrs. Linwood Antrim, in Richmond, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. Florence Madison Saunders has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Alma Lee, to Mr. William Isaac Baxter, of Charlottesville, S. C., on Wednesday, November 15, at 4 o'clock, at Monumental Church, Richmond, Va.

Miss Marguerite Jones, of Memphis, Tenn., who spent the past week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henry Carter Beverly, has returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Carter, at "Bryn Dune," Roland Park, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gedney and little son, of Washington, who have been visiting in King George County, Va., are now the guests of the Misses Marye.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. King have returned from their wedding trip, and are visiting friends in this city.

Miss N. Dixon spent the week-end with the Misses Castleman, at their home in Herndon.

Among the Alexandrians who attended the hop at Fort Myer on Tuesday night were Miss Florence Holohan and Miss Kitty Barrett.

Mrs. T. Y. Y. Payne, of Charlottesville, Va., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. John A. Graham, "O Promise Me" was played softly during the ceremony, and when the benediction was pronounced the organ burst forth into the beautiful wedding march from "Lohengrin." The bride's gown was a brown tailored suit, with bodice of brown silk, hand-embroidered and trimmed with cuttle beads, and hat and gloves to match. Her only ornament was a star of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Marguerite Wheatley Field, sister of the bride, was attired in a suit of peacock blue and a hat of darker blue, and she carried pink Killarney roses. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Timberlake, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Page, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swain, Mrs. Marion Gregory, Mrs. Marion Nicol, Miss Molly Edgeron, Mrs. Dr. Hugh Duffoy, Mr. and Mrs. William Flinn, and daughter, Mrs. John Schaff, Mrs. Flora Myers, Miss Ruth Myers, Mrs. John Gibbiam, all of Washington; Mr. Charles Burns, Mrs. Burns, of Baltimore; Miss Ruth Baller, of Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Marion Nugler, of Hampton, Va., and Miss Virginia Eustler, of Summit Point, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left after the ceremony for an extended Northern trip. They will be home Thursday in December at the Mississippi, in Washington.

Miss Elizabeth Janney has gone to Richmond, to be the guest of Mrs. Lou Hawkins.

Mrs. George Pryor Anderson, and her daughter, Miss Alice Adelaide Anderson, have returned from a visit to Lexington.

Mrs. Rachel Hopkins Reed, of Baltimore, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George French.

Miss Kitty Morelock, of Williamsburg, Va., is the guest of Miss Dolly Zimmerman.

Mrs. William Jackson Morton, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Wallace Mearns, in Richmond, has returned to her home in this city.

Miss Nancy Lee Tackett left last Tuesday to spend several weeks with Mrs. Emily Gravatt, in Richmond, Va.

Miss Americus Payne, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Dr. Butler, of Roanoke, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, returned to their homes last week.

Miss Rufus, of West Virginia, is the guest of Miss Mary Johnson.

Miss Brown, of Anne Arundel County, Md., is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Alexander Brown.

Rev. W. A. Hall, of Wytheville, was the guest during the past week of Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison.

Miss Julia Langhorne Cone, who has been the guest of Miss Eliza Kincaid Douglas, returned on Tuesday, to her home in Richmond.

Mrs. Frank T. King, and little Miss Dorothy Tazewell King have returned from a visit to Mrs. Rowland, in Norfolk.

Mrs. William Gibson Pendleton, of Eastville, Va., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Nicholas Dawson, on Summit Hill, returned to her home last Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Dawson, who will spend the winter in Eastville.

Mrs. Louis Grem, of Washington, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Burke, during the past week.

Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, Miss Dorothy Maybury, and Miss Holohan, of Lancaster, Pa.; Miss Virginia Beall Dainford, and Miss Pauline Nicol, and Miss Katherine Barrett spent the last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carter, at their home in Green Valley.